Speaking and Listening

I can carry out instructions with a number of steps.
I can listen to what others have said, remember, and then repeat and add facts.
I can listen, and then ask questions that show that I have understood.

Stunning Start: designing a suitcase to take on an adventure including what essential items we would need for a great day out.

Fabulous Finish: We will be inviting parents in to an exhibition to share our learning. More details to follow!
